THE EXTRA SESSION.

The Time for the Meeting Postponed Until October.

REASONS GIVEN FOR THE CHANGE

Anticipated Embarrassments to the Army and Navy.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] WASHINGTON, May 4, 1877. The action of the Cabinet to-day deferring the call for an extra session of Congress until October 15 next was a genuine surprise to the people of Washington, who had every reason to believe up to last night that the proclamation of the President would name an carly day in June for the assembling of the Fortyfifth Congress. It was stated in these despatches of the 16th of last month that the President was opposed to convening Congress during the summer and that whon a date was fixed it would be in September or October. A careful examination of the condition of existing appropriations and an inventory of army supplies showed that the business of the government could go on without additional appropriations or violation of law until next fail. The determination, therefore, to keep Congress away from Washington until the last moment was made in the interest of the country at large.

THE GENERAL PERLING. Mr. French, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, is happy in the belief that the longer the delay in bringing Congress together the loss likely he is to lose a lucrative position. Mr. Adams, Clerk of the House, who holds his position until a successor is elected, is not so happy, as a better opportunity is now given to those who are ambitious to succeed him to secure votes and oppose his re-election. Hundreds of temporary employes at the Capitol who have been lingering here since Congress adjourned, certain mator" arrived, are making basty preparations for a departure homeward. The hotel proprietors, boarding house keepers and shopkeepers are despondent over the postponement of the call, as it is estimated that a two months' session would have been worth several millions of dollars to this place. THE ANTICIPATED EFFECT.

On the other hand, the President and members of the Cabinet are assured that this action will give an impetus to business throughout the country and re rive confidence that would at least remain dormant so long as Congress was in session. The postponoment means, too, that the wholesale merchants of the country shall have nothing to fear from a derangement of trade, while Wall street will be stiffened by the pros-THE POLITICAL ASPECT.

The malcontents in the republican party, Blaine and Butler and their followers, are flanked by this call. Furthermore, the State elections in twelve States will have intervened to allow of an expression of popular opinion on the President's policy. These States are the following:—North Carolina and Alabams, which hold elections in August; Arkansas, California, Vermont and Maine, which hold elections in September; West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Connecticut, which have their elections in October.
The Oregon election takes place in June. During the next six months "lines of new departure" will be better defined and the action of Congress will be more deliberate and freer from political prejudice than if it VIEWS OF CARINET OFFICERS. Secretary Evarts represented that he had learned from leading business men in New York that an early session would be detrimental to all kinds of business while Secretary Sherman was convinced that the funding of the loan would be helped by deferring the call until next fall.

EFFECT ON ARMY AND NAVY. Temporary emparrassment will be caused to both army and navy officers and contractors, and the government will suffer many inconveniences during the remainder of the fiscal year by the exhaustion of the appropriation for printing official blanks. Regarding, owever, the benefits that will accrue to the country at large, the President is confident the people will sustain him in postponing the call till October next, and that only those who are anxious to make trouble will question the wisdom of the course agreed upon by the

EPPROT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PURTOR The Department of Justice will suffer much inconvenience by the postponement of an extra session, as there will be a deficiency of at least $500,000 by the 1st of July to be provided for by Congress and as no part that time can be used to supply the deficiency. In consequence of this state of affairs the settlement of many accounts of that department has already been

FUNDS TO BE REQUIRED. On the basis of last years' appropriation for the support of the army about $12,500,000 will be required to pay the accumulated indebtoness which will have been incurred between the commencement of the next fiscal year, July 1, and the time that Congress may pass the necessary appropriation bill.

REMONSTRANCES POURING IN. Already remonstrances are pouring in against the postponement, and a strong effort will be made to induce the President to change the date to the one supposed to have been originally chosen for the extra

CUNSET COX SEES HIMSELF THE SOUTHERN

FAVORITE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 4, 1877. Hon. Samuel S. Cox arrived here this morning after a two months' circuit through the Southern States. where he has been delivering lectures and speaking Cotton Exchanges in Mobile New Orleans, Galveston, Memphis and other places gave him very flattering receptions. He has advised all to accept the proffered food, even if brought, as it was to the prophet, by the darkest raven, and thank God for the food, if not for the raven. Mr. Gox says he has seen a great many men of prominence in the South, including members of the Forty-fifth Congress. From his observations be is satisfied that the democrats will organize the next House. There is no sort of show for any combination which can result otherwise; besides, while the democrats accept the President's policy as their own, the organization of that party is strengthened, not weakened, by the South Carolina and Louisiana policies of President Hayes.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

THE SPEARERSHIP.

As to the Speakership, he was rather reticent, but he had no doubt but that the great body of the members were reserved in reference to the expression of a preference as to the candidate of the democratic Congressional caucus, all daily telegrams sent by gossips from Washington to the contrary notwithstanding. He had found there was a greater partiality for himself in the South than he had expected, and he believed he could be nominated without making as much effort as he did before, when he had a majority of votes, though he lost lifteen by a belated train.

General Trajillo is now the popular candidate for the next Presidency of Colombia. There will probably be no organized opposition. The election will occur in Sentember next. Congress is in session at Bozota. and the members, almost in a body, have signed and issued a manifesto in favor of Trujillo's candidacy. The war leaves the country in a bad financial condition. FOR LOVE OR MONEY

SPEAKS THROUGH HIS COUNSEL-IS THE BRIDEGROOM "CALIFORNIA JOE?"-WHAT THE PLAINTIPPS BAY ABOUT A TWO DOLLAR WEDDING.

The alleged Lonez-Morrison marriage conspiracy excited much comment yesterday among the friends of both of the principals. Lopez's friends were strong in their denunciation of the hearted father who had separated a loving couple," and Mr. Morrison's friends asserted as strongly that Lopez was a rascal and they could and would prove it. Lopez's friends claimed that Mrs. Lopez had been forcibly taken from her husband and hidden away from him. Her relatives and friends assert, on the contrary, that she is disgusted with her marriage and is anxious to have it annulled. She was married to Lopez regularly by Dr. Tiffany in April and since then she has been kept strictly at home. Her parents stated that they will not be blackmailed in the matter, and claim that money was the only object Lopez had in marrying their daughter. The servants who assisted Lopez in making the acquaintance of Miss Morrison have been discharged, but some of them will probably be used as witnesses against him. It is stated that Lopez expected to realize $100,000 from Mr. Morrison as the price of his leaving the country, and in the furtherance of his scheme it is said that he promised the servants who assisted him $5,000 and in the furtherance of his scheme it is said that he promised the servants who assisted him $5,000 each.

The following letter is from the attorney of the husband of Mr. Morrison's daughter:—

A DEFENCE OF LOPEZ.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HEALD:—
In your issue of to day an article appears headed "A Martimonist Conspiracy," which does not only injustice to a man respected in this community, but against one whom the finger of auspicion has never been pointed. As his legal advicer and counsel, I sak a suspension of public criterism until the matter is properly brough before the public, and ask his many friends and acquaintances to place no reliance upon the statements in to-day's paner until the matter is heally decided. The facts are briefly that Mr. Lopez, who resides at the trans Central Hotel, or can be found at any time at my office, No. 12 Weat Fourth street, in some annacountable way incurred the displasure of Mr. Morrison, his father-in-law, who in this contemptible manner is endeavoring to apparate hasband and wife by the maliciona altegations contained in to-day's publication, which, or the sake of justice and farriess between usafin man, we truly will not be adjudged against him. The RANGIS GIBBONS.

Atturney for Mr. Joseph Lopez.

P. S.—In reference to the stat-ment that an order to show cause has been served upon Mr. Lopez to set aside the marriage contract, Mr. Occar J. Hochstadter, who is the counsel for Lopez, anys that ho paper served was a "summons for relief" complaint not served, and he, therefore, will not be apprised of the caim against him until street the complaint is served. Mr. Hochstadter had a notice of apparance and arrives of the complaint against him until street the complaint as served. Mr. Hochstadter had a notice of apparance has been determined.

ENERSIGATION.

Mr. Morrison's lawyers have been busy serveding the served in the pearance served upon Mr. hates, the plaintiff's attorney, and demanded a copy of the compraint against his ellent.

April. 4, 1877.

Mr. Morrison's lawyers have been busy searoling Lopez's previous record, and claim that there are facts in their possession fully identifying the bridetroom as "California Joe," an attaché and hanger on el the Bleecker street gang. It is claimed that in October, 1876, Lopez was stopping at the Continental Hotel, on Broadway, where he was registored and known as "Lopez Boscha."

The hotel register of that month bears a signature of that kind, and the description of Mr. Lopez Boscha's personal appearance tallies in all respects with that of Mr. Lopez. The Continental Hotel retains the baggage of Mr. Boscha or Mr. Lopez was a frequenter of low satioons and disreputable places in and around Bleecker street, and one house of a bad character in Fourth street is mentioned as the place where he generally slept. The point made in the letter of Mr. Lopez's attorney that he resided at the Grand Central Hotel is true, but an examination of the hotel register showed that he had been there but one week. Mr. Morrison's counsel states that his board was paid there for one week by some one, who he declines to state, for the purpose of establishing a respectable residence.

Mr. Devitt C. Bates, counsel for Mr. Morrison, said last evening to the writer that his client's daughter was now fully convinced of her fatal error in aniowing the marriage ceremony to be performed. The paper which had been served upon Lopez's lawyer was a summons in the Supreme Court in an action in the daughter's name to dectare the marriage nuit and void on the ground of fraud. Mr. Bates, of course, declined to give the points on which the case was to be argued, but he claimed that there was no question as to the ultimate result, as there was pienty of proof to nullify the marriage on that ground. Miss Morrison had been humbugged into the marriage, and aithough not as fully aware of her baneful position, owing to her weak intellect, as most young ladies would be, still she realized it sufficiently to wish, as did her relatives, for a speedy release. Miss Morrison was not at her father's house in New York, but had been removed to a piace of safety on account of the trouble caused the household by Lopez and his friends. They constantly watched the house, and attempted several times to smuggle notes to Miss Morrison through the servants. To avoid thus she had been taken away, and was in good heath and spirits. The MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

The marriage coremony was performed on April 5, by Dr. Tiffany, at his residence in Thirty-eighth street. Miss Morrison, the Doctor said, was slightly nervous, but made the necessary responses correctly and answered the questions promptly that were put to ber. Under the circumstances he could do nothing but marry them. At the close of the ceremony the groom Lopez handed Doctor Tiffany an envelope and immediately afterward the weedding party withdrew. On opening the outside wrapper another envelope was found and on that being removed still another came to view. After the third had been opened a $2 bill was discovered. It is thought that the object in placing the mention of the party to leave the house force the minister had ascertained the extent of his evidence that Mr. Lopez was not in so prosperous a financial condition at the time of his marriage as its claimed for him. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by one Eugene Brown, a friend of Lopez, and a gentieman staying in Dr. Tiffany's house, the party withdrew and separated, Miss Morrison going immediately to her home.
